Agri SA announces Board at the 2018 Congress

Agri SA is proud to announce its Board who have been elected at the 2018 Congress today. The Board is representative of the entire agricultural value chain, including Agri SA's Provincial affiliates, commodity organisations and corporate members.

“The Presidency is an amazing privilege. I am responsible to the farmers and will remain faithful to Agri SA’s constitution and mandates,” said Dan Kriek, re-elected Agri SA President. “The past year has been a baptism of fire, particularly given the immense pressure farmers has been placed under from farm attacks, severe drought conditions, and the threat of expropriation without compensation (EWC).”

Dan is a stud farmer in the Free State and has been active in Agri SA structures for several years, having served as Free State Agriculture President and Agri SA Deputy President. This is his second term as Agri SA President.

The Agri SA Board for 2018/19 is:

Dan Kriek	- President
Pierre Vercueil	- Deputy president
Phenias Gumede	- Deputy president
Cornie Swart	- General Affairs Chamber representative
Doug Stern	- General Affairs Chamber representative
Francois Wilken	- General Affairs Chamber representative
Jaco Minnaar	- Commodity Chamber representative
Niël Joubert	- Commodity Chamber representative
SK Makinana	- Commodity Chamber representative
Gerhard Diedericks	- Corporate Chamber Representative
Rossouw Cillie	- Corporate Chamber representative
Nic Bronkhorst	- Corporate Chamber Representative
Dr Charlotte Nkuna	- Independent Director
Dr Kathy Hurley	- Independent Director

“I could not ask for a better Board to support me and Agri SA during these important times. We look forward to a productive year ahead!”
